JUSTICE GARDNER SUBMITS OPINION UPHOLDING ROADS BOND AMENDMENT

Supports Minority Decision
Rendered by High Court on the Measure

LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION OF SECTION 284 ASKED

Case Cited to Show Support of Position of the Minority

(Montgomery Bureau Albany-Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 23. — Fully concurring in the opinions already written by Justices Somerville and Thomas, dissenting from the majority opinion of the Alabama supreme court which has declared the $25,000,000 Good Roads Issue Amendment invalid, Associate Justice Lucian D. Gardner, in an opinion filed with the clerk of the supreme court, Tuesday, states and supports his position as a member of the minority in this particular case, that the amendment in question should be upheld. Quoting from the brief filed a few days ago in connection with application to the supreme court for a rehearing of the bond issue appeal, Justice Gardner says he is of the opinion that the time has now come when the supreme court of Alabama, "should not inquire too technically into any mere irregularities in the manner of proposing and submitting to the people that which they have solemnly adopted and subsequently recognized and acted upon as part of the fundamental law of the state."

It is the contention of Justice Gardner, as set out in his opinion, that Section 284 of the Constitution, upon which the majority of the court based its decision declaring the goods roads amendment invalid and void, "contemplates 2 separate acts, namely: A. Adoption of an amendment; after adoption of the proposal, necessary provision for submission thereof to the people. He states it was not contemplated that the legislature should order an election until after the proposal to amend the constitution had been passed by both houses. He further declares that Section 284 contains no provision as to how the legislature shall subsequently order in selection nor is there any method prescribed for the passage of such act. Justice Gardner supports the contention already brought out that: The authority to propose an amendment is vested in the legislature as an entity other than a law-making body, while the authority to order an election and provide for the machinery thereof is vested in the legislature as a law-making body. In this connection the statement is made that: "If this a correct premise, then it follows, under the authorities, that the legislature, acting in its legislative capacity, was authorized to delegate to the Governor, the right and power of fixing the date of the election."

Stating that he is of the opinion that that part of Section 284 dealing with the question of an election should be given a liberal, rather than a strict and literal construction, Justice Gardner says: "The strict rule of construction applied by the court is the instant case, is entirely proper when there is under consideration language of the constitution dealing with fundamental principles of government, or the life, liberty or property rights of the citizens or other matters of substantial character; but those provisions directed to the law-making body concerning the time or manner of performing certain acts, a liberal rule of construction should be applied and such directions held as merely directory, unless the language used is such as to negative such a construction." In support of this statement, Justice Gardner quotes the following from the ruling of Chief Justice Gibson, in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Clarke, 7 Watts & Sergeant, 127:

"A constitution is not to receive a technical construction, like a common law instrument or a statute. It is to be interpreted so as to carry out the great principles of the government, not to defeat them; and to that end, it commands as to the time, or manner of performing an act are to be considered as merely directory wherever it is not said that the act shall be performed at the time or in the manner prescribed, and no other. The object of the command in this instance, was no

LABOR CALLED ON TO PROTECT NATION

"Insidious Propaganda of European Insanity" Warned Against by Samuel Gompers

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, today called upon organized labor to protect "the Democratic institutions of our country" from attacks by "plutocratic reaction" and "insidious propaganda of European insanity."

Gompers, addressing the opening conferences of heads of the national and international unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, called upon the representatives of labor to meet "the issues of the most serious character affecting our people and our Republic."

The Conference was called to combat the open shop movement, to draw up a bill of rights and make demands for legislation protecting the rights of labor for collective bargaining and to organize against movements for reduction of wages and longer working hours.

MILTON H. SMITH, L. AND N. HEAD IS DEAD AT LOUISVILLE

Milton H. Smith, for 35 years one of the officials of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and one of the best known railroaders in America, died late Wednesday afternoon in Louisville. Funeral arrangements were being completed today.

It was rumored here this afternoon that in accordance with Mr. Smith's own request, the shops on the Louisville and Nashville system would not suspend operations because of his death. The local shop was working as usual today.

Mr. Smith was 85 years of age and had been connected with railroading practically all of his life. He was a civil war veteran. At the close of the war he became connected with the Louisville and Nashville and continued with that road with the exception of a short period with the Baltimore and Ohio. He resigned from the former road when his embargo orders, made in order to permit passenger trains to bring refugees through Montgomery from the yellow fever zone, were revoked by the L. and N. president.

NEGRO ARRESTED IN ROBBERY CASE MAKES HIS ESCAPE

A negro, known to officers as "Cutey" held in connection with the robbery of J. S. Patterson's store on Bank street several nights ago, made his escape last night from the Decatur city jail by sawing through the bars.

Police today were without clues as to the negro's whereabouts.

Indemnity Meet Delayed 2 Days

(International News Service)

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The conference on German indemnity, at which the Germans will be allowed to present counter proposals, has been postponed, it was officially announced today. The original date was March 1, but it is now stated that the Germans will not arrive until March 3.

HUNDREDS REAP HARVEST OF BARGAINS ON "DOLLAR DAY"

Special Offerings Prove Great Success, Local Merchants Declare

Hundreds of thrifty shoppers reaped a bargain harvest Wednesday and reports from local merchants today were to the effect that "Dollar Day," repeated by request, was a great success.

J. P. Matlock: "Had over 800 dollar day sales. Day was a great success."

W. W. Rahm: "Had biggest holiday business in history of firm."

Speake, Echols and Speake: "Exceeded last dollar day's business, which is going some."

Morgan Furniture company: "Had unusually fine trade. Very satisfactory in every respect."

Ory-Cohen: "Packed to doors at 10 o'clock for drawing. Did good business all day."

BIG LOT OF COTTON MARKETED ABROAD BY NEW EXPORT CO.

The Federal International Banking Company is now handling its first big financial transaction which consists of the financing of the shipment of 15,000 bales of cotton to Europe, says an announcement of the Company. This cotton is exported by a cotton exporting company in the South and upon their receipt in Europe it is to be manufactured into cloth and yarn for the account of the shippers. The European mills will retain a part of the cotton in payment of their services.

The funds for financing this shipment are provided by means of acceptances created by the Federal International Banking Company. The payment of the acceptances will be secured by the cotton itself, also by the finished products as these are manufactured, as well as by the responsibility of the trading company and of the individual owners of the cotton.

This transaction involving approximately a quarter of a million dollars, is typical of the character of assistance which the Federal International Banking Company is designed to afford to producers of the South.

"We have under consideration a large number of other propositions of similar benefit to the South. The above transaction is only one of many to follow in the very near future," it is stated.

ORDER RESTRICTING DEBS' PRIVILEGES SUBJECT OF PROBE

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The White House is investigating the order issued by D. S. Dickinson, superintendent of Federal prisons, restricting the privileges of Eugene V. Debs in the Atlanta penitentiary, it was announced today.

It was indicated at the White House that if it is established that Debs' attack upon President Wilson is the sole reason for the restriction of Debs' privileges, that the President will order that the Socialist leader be given all the privileges which other prisoners enjoy.

REPUBLICANS TALK OVER PLAN TO GET LEGISLATIVE JAM IN BETTER SHAPE

Impromptu Conferences Held to Determine on Course of Action

APPROPRIATIONS HANG IN THE BALANCE TODAY

President-Elect Very Anxious to Clear Calendar Before the Inaugural

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Republican leaders of the Senate held an impromptu series of conferences today to see if they could untangle the legislative snarl which threatens the passage of the army and navy appropriations bills. It is pointed out that both bills are subject to much controversy and even if the Senate succeeds in passing them, the danger of their being deadlocked in conference is to be avoided.

The Senate resumed consideration today of the agricultural bills with the hope entertained by Senator Gronna, chairman of the Senate agricultural committee, that it would be passed by nightfall.

The Senate military affairs committee is expected to report the army bill during the day. Republican leaders are exerting every means at their disposal to comply with President-elect Harding's repeatedly expressed wish that all appropriation bills be disposed of before he assumes office. Senator Penrose, Republican, of Pennsylvania, chairman of the finance committee, expressed the opinion the conference on the emergency tariff bill would reach an agreement before the end of the day.

RAILROADS DRIFT TOWARD FEDERAL CONTROL—M'ADOO

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—American railroads are moving rapidly toward government ownership, William G. McAdoo, former director-general of the railroad administration, declared here today.

The Esch-Cummins bill, which provides for the return of the railroads to private ownership, was characterized by McAdoo as "the biggest piece of bunk" ever put over on the American people.

"What are they going to do when this flow of gold stops coming to them from the United States treasury," he was asked.

"Search me," McAdoo retorted, "maybe by that time the people will commence getting wise as to what is going on in the railroad world and will themselves take a hand in running the carriers."

"Solution of the rail problem never will be achieved through proposed consolidation of the weaker with the stronger lines," McAdoo continued.

MERCHANTS MEET THURSDAY NIGHT, SPECIAL SESSION

A special session of the Albany Retail Merchants Association will be held Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock and the attendance of all members was urged.

"The meeting is for the purpose of making plans for three important undertakings," President Rahm stated. "Every retail merchant in Albany is urged to be there."

Dr. W. P. McGlawn, presiding elder of the Decatur district, suffered a painful injury this morning when his right arm was broken while he was cranking an automobile.

Union Officers To Hear Details Strike End Plan

(International News Service.)

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23.—National guard troops, who have been on duty in the coal strike district for almost four months and who were ordered withdrawn Tuesday, are expected to begin arriving in Birmingham Thursday, it was learned at headquarters here today.

General Steiner, in command, said today that the guardsmen will entrain for their home stations as rapidly as possible. It is believed that the troops will be demobilized in three or four days.

(International News Service.)

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23.—For the purpose of explaining the strike settlement, Van A. Bittner, representative of the United Mine Workers of America, this morning called a conference for Friday morning of all local officers of the miners union.

The calling of the conference was the first official act of Mr. Bittner since the settlement was affected Tuesday.

Instructions will be given to the local officers, which they will issue to the miners in the coal fields in order that the strike may be brought to a final close. Union officials said today that they were "glad it's over."

Following the issuance of the statement Tuesday in which the miners agreed to end the strike, a supplemental statement was given out today in which the union leaders say the agreement was made in good faith and that they will stand by it. The statement expresses confidence in Governor Kilby and says the union officials believe he will appoint a commission that will render justice.

No additional statement was issued by the operators during the morning.

HOOVER UNDECIDED BUT CONSIDERS JOB IN THE NEW CABINET

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Herbert Hoover, formally tendered the post of Secretary of Commerce in the next cabinet, gave President-elect Harding, during their telephone conversation last night, assurances that the offer would have his earnest consideration, it was learned today by the International News Service.

Hoover did not refuse the appointment and President-elect Harding received the impression that the former food administrator would probably become one of his cabinet advisers. Hoover denied himself to callers today at his office, but he was understood to be getting his work in such shape that he can lay other tasks aside for cabinet duties within a fortnight.

HARTSELL SENDS ANOTHER CHECK IN RELIEF CAMPAIGN

Hartselle schools have gone over the top again for the European relief work, Chairman E. C. Payne receiving a check this morning as a contribution of the students of the Morgan County high school. The check totalled $135.52.

The following letter accompanied the check:

Hartselle, Ala., Feb. 21, 1921
Mr. E. C. Payne,
Albany, Ala.
Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed check for $135.52 which the Morgan County High School contributes to the starving children of Europe.

Yours respectfully,
J. H. Riddle, Principal.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR NEW RECORD

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Completing an almost continuous night flight from Cheyenne, Wyoming, pilot John H. Knight east bound in the transcontinental air mail race, landed safely at 8:40 this morning. With his arrival mail officials predicted that their hope of establishing a record of 36 to 40 hours for a coast-to-coast flight would be realized.

Shortly after his arrival the mail from his plane had been transferred to another which left for Cleveland. Barring accident it was predicted this plane would arrive at New York late this afternoon, making the total elapsed time for the coast-to-coast flight less than 36 hours.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY SUPPLANTS STRIKE IN ENGLISH LABOR

(International News Service)

LONDON, Feb. 23.—The direct actionists—that faction of labor that supports the general strike as the most effective weapon against the government—were overwhelmingly defeated in today's conferences of the trade union congress upon the unemployment situation.

The delegates, following out the recommendation of the executive committee, approved a policy of intensive political activity to attain the desired ends.

The specific object of the trade union conference was to decide whether the speeches and promises of members of the cabinet, since the convening of parliament, are likely to alleviate the grave unemployment situation.

FAVORS CHANGE OF THE DIVORCE LAWS

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Abolition of the restriction which prohibits remarriage of divorced couples for one year is urged by Judge George Fred Rush, who while sitting on the bench in the divorce branch of the Circuit Court has listened to 2,000 marital cases.

"I am in favor of the abolition of the restriction which prohibits remarriage of divorced couples for one year," he stated yesterday, "but I'm also an advocate of the passage of a more drastic restriction to take its place."

"The new law should prohibit judges from granting a divorce decree until the expiration of twelve months after the hearing of the evidence. Any one who married during the year in which the suit was pending would then be guilty of bigamy and could be punished accordingly."

"The legislators should understand," he said, "that these second marriages amount to nothing less than trial marriages, and that upon either of the couple growing dissatisfied it must be annulled by the courts, without the offenders being liable to punishment."

Judge Rush advocates a law making insanity a valid cause for divorce. Two things, he said, were largely responsible for the steady increase in marital failures—childless marriages and the ability of women to support themselves by their own efforts.

CREMATORY PLAN GIVEN APPROVAL OF ALBANY'S CITY FATHERS BY LAW

Ordinance Passed Last Night
Provides for New Sanitary
Plant

SEWER LATERALS FOR 2 WARDS PROVIDED

Street Assessments for Holley Improvement Made Final
by Council

Last night was "ordinance night" with the Albany city council and several new measures were adopted by the city fathers, the most important of which provides for the establishment of a crematory within or without the city limits, to care for all municipal garbage. A fee of 25 cents per month was agreed on to cover hauling charges.

An ordinance was adopted providing for the construction of certain sanitary sewer laterals in East and South Albany at a cost of approximately $14,000.

Another ordinance provided for the collection of sanitary fees by the sanitary officer and requires citizens to maintain garbage cans on their premises. The ordinance further provides no person will be permitted to establish a dry closet, without the permission of the county health officer.

The finance committee reported it had conferred with local contractors and a license charge of $40 per year was for all carpenters, contractors and building supervisors employing one or more men.

Last night's meeting was a special conclave and final assessments were made for the Holley street improvement. E. W. Godbey appeared as attorney for Mrs. B. Crawford and interposed objections to the assessments which were made final over the protest.

BIG BOLSHEVIK WAR NEAR, SAYS PRINCE

(International News Service)

TOKIO, Feb. 23.—That Bolshevism has created an extremely dangerous world situation, with strong possibilities of another war as an extensive scale as the late World War, and that Spring will likely see decisive developments with the rule of Trotsky and Lenin are views held by Prince Alexis Kropotkin, a nobleman of the old Russian regime, who arrived in Tokio recently. Prince Kropotkin arrived in Tokio to solicit funds for the starving people of Far Eastern Siberia.

"Trotsky has a big army, well organized and he has a big nation behind him held in submission by bayonets and machine guns," said Prince Kropotkin, in reply to a question regarding further war. "The Bolshevik leaders have no patriotism; they care not a thing for their own country, but have as their sole aim the destruction of other countries' governments. Take the other countries: Turkey is without an effective army; Greece and Italy have no armies to speak of; Austria is disorganized; Germany is defeated; France with a strong anti-Bolshevik spirit but tremendously debilitated by the war; England her hands full with colonial and national problems. It is much too easy for the Bolsheviks. I regard the world situation as extremely dangerous."

The Bolshevik agents in the United States have great trouble in accomplishing their work, Prince Kropotkin says.

Tax Revision Plan Laid Before House

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—A tax revision program was laid before the House today in a bill to be introduced by Representative Longworth, of Ohio. The bill not expected to be acted upon at this session. Longworth's bill provides for repeal of the excess profits tax, the transportation tax and the tax on soft drinks. It would reduce the heavy sur-tax on incomes from the present maximum of 73 per cent the sur-tax of 65 per cent, plus the normal tax of 8 per cent to 40 per cent.

CHARLES E. HUGHES NAMED FOR SECRETARY OF STATE

In the appointment of Charles Evans Hughes to be Secretary of State, President-Elect Harding upholds the judgment of his party four years ago, when its leaders regarded Mr. Hughes as the most able and acceptable man in the Republican party. Although the former Supreme court Justice, and ex-Governor of the state of New York, failed of election to the Presidency, in his contest against Woodrow Wilson, he polled a large vote, and for days the result of the election was in doubt. When Mr. Hughes assumes office, he will not be the first Secretary of State, to make an unsuccessful trial for the Presidency.

Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, William J. Bryan, and perhaps a number of other men who lost the Presidency, afterwards served as Secretary of State. Mr. Hughes' political career began when a score of years ago, as attorney for an investigation committee of the New York legislature, he unearthed a great life insurance scandal and successfully prosecuted the guilty parties.

Following this public service Hughes twice was elected Governor of New York state, over the opposition of such men as Thomas C. Platt.

As Governor, despite the opposition of former Governor Odell, Mr. Platt, and the entire Republican machine organization Governor Hughes' fight against race track gambling, for a direct primary, and for a certain public service utility act, was successful by a narrow margin in the state legislature.

When Hughes retired as Governor he is said to have been much more popular with Democrats than with the leading members of his own party. President Taft elevated Hughes to the Supreme bench, where he served with distinction, until he was "drafted" by the Republicans, to run for the Presidency against Mr. Wilson.

During the last four years Mr. Hughes has practiced his profession, that of the law, so successfully, that he is now said to be rich enough to accept high office under the government.

A case on which Mr. Hughes worked, that attracted nation wide attention, was when he defended the five or six Socialists, who had been dismissed from the New York legislature, by that body's almost unanimous vote. Mr. Hughes did not succeed in preventing an adverse vote, but his speeches made a profound impression, and gained for him wide popularity, especially among the liberal thinking people of the nation. The appointment of Hughes will not be popular with the bosses in the G. O. P., but the rank and file will welcome it.

Senator Hiram Johnson and Senator Borah may resent it, as Hughes has always been regarded as favorable to some kind of a League of Nations, also Mr. Hughes has never been regarded as a "bitter end" hater of Woodrow Wilson, or his policies. It is a fact that the early training of Wilson and Hughes, was much alike. Both are reported to be the sons of ministers, both are said to have taught school, and both are known to have been active in the councils of their respective churches. Both men are self-made, and both have fought the bosses in their respective parties. It has been urged by some that Mr. Hughes' lack of diplomatic training, his disposition to contend for right with determination, and his distant attitude toward people in general, will unfit him for the delicate tasks of states craft.

Time alone will reveal what manner of man

Mr. Hughes will prove himself to be as the premier member of the next candidate, but the average American has confidence in him, and is inclined to believe that Senator Harding made a ten stroke when he secured the services of Charles E. Hughes as his Secretary of State.

AN UNFORTUNATE REMARK

The statement attributed to Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, when he refused to send a bank defaulter to the penitentiary, to the effect that the directors of the robbed bank should be "sent up" if any body was, on the ground that the defaulter clerk was paid only $90.00 per month by those directors, was an unfortunate one, to say the least. The fact that it was shown in the trial before Judge Landis, that the bank in question had paid its stockholders 20 per cent dividends, and the further fact proven that the clerk had a large family, do not change the merits of the question from a stand point of right, a little bit. Unless, foresooth the doctrine that we must do evil that good may come, is to be accepted.

There was another false implication in the remark credit to the distinguished jurist, namely, that as the clerk in question had a large family he should have been paid a bonus, so to speak. Of course large families must be taken care of, and their possession should be encouraged in every legitimate way, but no consideration can make the doctrine right—that the world owes any body a living, even if the person in question happens to be blessed with a large number of children.

The world owes every body an equal opportunity to use their talents in making a living, but no more false, "bolshhevik" doctrine can be advocated than that the world is in debt to every person, to the extent of furnishing a living, for all hands.

The sportive mood in which Judge Landis has received the criticisms of Senator Dial, and the Senator's threat to impeach him, is good to read about, and a great deal of public sympathy will attach to the sensational and picturesque Judge, for his championship of the under paid clerk, but nothing can change the fact, that there was great impropriety in the statement, as attributed to the Chicago Judge.

Those who have respect for the commandment which advises that we shall not steal, and who have not entirely forgotten that there is such a thing as property rights, will be inclined to part company with the Federal judge, who virtually says if you are not paid enough to keep up a large family, steal what is lacking.

While ungenerous action on the part of employers cannot be too severely condemned, it can hardly be considered permissible for money values to be secured without something in return or at least due process of law, should be resorted to.

It will probably develop before the controversy is over, as to whether or not Judge Landis shall be impeached, that he meant no such thing as he is credited with, and as he seems to have meant from all evidence now before the public, but at any rate, he was talking too freely for a public official, solemnly charged with the duty of holding up a high standard of morals.

Woodrow might not be an ideal given name, but it beats Gamaliel by a whole jug full.

The ex-Ruler of Germany is reported to be opposed to the payment of the 66 billion indemnity, on the ground that there will be little left for him should he ever recapture his throne.

Suppose, something that is not true—that the war was poorly managed and all but broke the government financially—such a calamity would still be bliss compared to German occupation.

If the price of rubber was not also high, the chewing of certain steaks would indicate that they contained 50% India Rubber.

The insurance bandits, put to route by Charles E. Hughes, when he first started out, were easy marks, compared with intimation bandits, that will try to put something over on him when he gets to be Secretary of State.

President Wilson said and meant self determination. From the looks of some of the nations since he uttered those memorable words, they understood him to declare for self extermination.

Justice Gardner Submits Opinion

more than to urge the legislature to put the elective principle in active operation at the earliest day practicable under all the circumstances, and it has been accomplished."

Justice Gardner explains that this ruling was announced in construing constitutional provisions as to appointments and elections.

Continuing, Justice Gardner declares: "This court has many times declared it is a solemn thing to strike a legislative act as contravening the fundamental law, and that, before this is done, the judicial mind must be convinced to that end beyond all reasonable doubt. But to strike down an amendment to that constitution, submitted to and ratified by the people, is still more solemn, and if possible, should call for a higher degree of caution and through conviction of the judicial mind." He maintains that the state has not only proclaimed the amendment to be adopted, but the people and the state have accepted and functioned under it that it has, therefore, been clearly adopted and ratified and the state government functioned and operated under the assumption that it was a part of the organic law.

Applying the same arguments in support of the soldier's and sailors' poll tax exemption amendment, Justice Gardner states it as his opinion that this amendment also has been fully accepted and ratified.

Every office in the Alabama state capitol was closed throughout Tuesday in honor of the anniversary of the natal day of the "Father of his Country." Even Governor Kilby's office was closed, the chief executive having left Tuesday morning for Auburn, where he delivered an address in connection with the inauguration of Dr. Spright Dowell, as president of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

Even Christmas day was not more religiously observed than was Tuesday, which was declared a holiday for all state employees in an informal statement issued Monday by Governor Kilby. The offices of all departments remained closed throughout the afternoon. In fact, it was a real holiday.

Workmen, Tuesday began the construction of a balcony in the audience chamber used by the Alabama public service commission at the state capitol, which balcony will be occupied by clerks and stenographers in order to conserve the limited floor space provided in the 2 rooms allotted to the public service body for transaction of its official business.

The idea of the construction of balconies half way between the floor and ceiling of office rooms, to make more desk space available was first adopted by the department of education, which has found this innovation very convenient and useful.

Alabama's delegation to the annual meeting of the Department of Superintendence of the National Educational Association, which will be in session at Atlantic City, N. J., February 27 to March 3, inclusive, will make the trip to and from Atlantic City in special Pullman cars which have already been chartered. One of these special cars, it is stated, will be placed at the Union station in Montgomery, and the other at the Birmingham passenger depot, on Friday, February 25, for the convenience of those who wish to make the trip. The train carrying the special Birmingham coach will leave the Magic City at 4:20 o'clock Friday afternoon, and will pick up the special Pullman at Montgomery at 6:15 the same evening.

Alabama's representation at the New Jersey meeting will be headed by Dr. John W. Abercrombie, state superintendent of education, and will include some of the most prominent educators in the state. A special rate to those making the journey, of fare and one half for the round trip has already been announced by Railway officials.

JAPAN'S CROWN PRINCE MAY POSTPONE VISIT

TOKIO, Feb. 23.—The plans of Hirohito, Crown Prince of Japan to visit European and American cities during 1921 may be abandoned, according to a statement issued here recently. It is said that while His Imperial Majesty the Emperor is in better health than he was for a time, he is still unable to attend to many of the important functions of State, and unless he greatly improves it will be necessary for the Crown Prince to remain in Tokyo to act as the Imperial representative.

AFTER ANY ILLNESS THE BLOOD IS WEAK

If You Get Well Slowly, Try Building Up Your Blood

IT'S BLOOD THAT FEEDS THE BODY

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood Changes Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron which Nature supplies to some extent in food. But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the needed iron, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood-cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality, and fine color.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order, be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Furnished in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

WILKINSON GOES TO ARRANGE JURY IN LYNCHING CASE

BIRMINGHAM, Feb. 23. — Acting Assistant Attorney General Willson went to Jasper Tuesday to arrange for the re-assembling of the special grand jury which was organized January 20 to investigate the lynching of William Baird, union miner, who was taken from the Jasper jail and shot to death.

It is expected that indictment of the nine members of Company M, state national guards, whose cases were not pressed at Hamilton on Tuesday, will be completed in the next 24 hours. It is believed in some quarters steps will be taken to have the trials in Walker county as soon as new indictments are returned.

Washington Party Enjoyed by Class

An interesting Washington's birthday celebration was given in the parlors of the Central Methodist church last night by the "Help Others" Bible Class of that church, which was largely attended.

George Washington was impersonated by Rev. W. P. McGlawn, who wore a powdered wig, and full Colonial Uniform. Martha Washington was impersonated by Miss Josephine Stirling, one of the city school teachers. Rev. Sturdivant, pastor of the Central Methodist church, made a short address which was greatly enjoyed. Dr. McGlawn, spoke briefly, confining his remarks to words of encouragement for the Sunday School. Other numbers of the program were as follows:

Piano Solo.—Mrs. McGlathery.
Solo—"Somewhere I Hear You Calling Me."—Mrs. D. J. Whately.
Reading—"Judgment Day"—Miss Vivian Burton.
Washington Pie Contest.
Violin Solo.—Miss Hortense Mahoney.
Cherry Contest.

OFFICER HERE

Walter Yarbrough, chief of police of Athens, was here today to return a prisoner picked up here last night by Officer Lackey and said to be wanted in Athens on a charge of petit larceny.

COTTON MARKET OPENING STEADY

NEW YORK, Feb. 23. — The cotton market opened steady today. March contracts were 53 points lower and under heavy liquidation, promoted by the circulation of notices for about 70,000 bales. Later months were 16 points lower to 19 higher on re-buying by sellers of the nearer positions and in domestic trade demand. Liverpool cables were weak, influenced by the further decline in the price of silver.

Comedians Hold Stage at Tulane

McIntyre and Heath are 1,000 per cent as entertainers. Without a doubt they are the best black face comedians in this country, and this means the world. For many years this team has been before the American public in minstrels, in vaudeville, and at the head of their own shows, and age does not stale nor custom wither their infinite variety. They are better today than they were last year, and so far as condition goes are running at the top of their form.

A capacity audience saw the opening performances of these comedians at the Tulane last night. It enjoyed nearly every moment of the show, and there are not many moments when the stars are not filling the stage with their innocent fun. The piece this year is called, "Hello, Alexander." A rose by any other name would smell just as sweet, "Howdy, Rastus," would have fit the plot equally as well. For plot it has not, story it tells not, theme—where is it?

McIntyre is still playing the gullible harkey, and Heath the flashy, dressed up sport who does the gulling. Every time Heath says "Hello, Alexander" it costs McIntyre ten dollars. And he can say that salutation in more different languages than there are.

Supporting the comedians are a number of clever vaudevillians, singers, dancers, comedy artists, and a bunch of ugly chorus girls of varied sizes who come very near to breaking up the show at times they are so homely. Among the cleverest of the support are Homer Dickinson, Mabel Elaine, Grace Deagon, Earl Richard, and Brazil and Griffin, a dance team. Mr. Dickinson showed some speed in his part, and with his team mate, Miss Deagon, who enacts a lisping girl, he made a fine impression. Earl Richard has the only voice in the company, and his songs create a fine impression. Mabel Elaine made a tremendous hit with her dancing specialties. Few women can make up and act like the colored sister, but she can.

It was good to see honest old Dan Quinlan in the cast. For many years he was one of the leading minstrel men of the country, and his work still has the finish and force of his younger day.—New Orleans States

Beautiful Poem Written to Sister

The following very pretty verses written by the late U. S. Senator Wm. Van Voorhies of Columbia, Tenn., to his sister Lucy Ann Voorhies, under date August 1846, the original of which is a treasured heirloom of a citizen of Decatur we consider of sufficient beauty to well warrant reproduction.

My Sister

Thine's a smile that, like the sunshine
Falling on a frozen flower,
Wakes to life and warmth and beauty
Chilled affection's falling power;
Thine's a smile whose bright light
Trusted long, has not betrayed,
I could lean my soul upon it
Sister dear, nor feel afraid.

Thine's a kiss so pure and holy
That an Angel's lips could feel
Nothing earthly in the magic Impress of it's heavenly seal.
Oh, if earth possesses any
Uncontaminated bliss
Tis the chaste yet ardent pressure
Of a Sister's holy kiss.

Thine's a love whose every pulse beat
Gushes warmly from the heart,
Passion such as heaven only
To a Sister doth impart.
Love that clings when all forsake us,
Love that blooms when all are frowning,
Love that smiles when all are frowning,
Love that's true when all betray.

Sister, as the wearied, worn heart
Panteth for his sylvan stream,
As the caged bird seeks to leave its
Bright-wing in the morning's beam,
Even thus, amid the splendor
And the pomp surrounding me,
Wearied with the dazzling glitter
Fondly turns my heart to the thee.
The above was written in 1848, the original in a fine state of preservation.

PATHE NEWS

FRESH "STUFF" SERVED HOT

Foreword by the "Editor" of Pathe News. Some of our "News" may seem foolish to our readers, and to some it may be a bit irritable. But we feel that those who know us personally, will consider the fact that we are quite "young" in the "Editing" game, and will not hold us responsible for our shortcomings. To those we have not had the pleasure of knowing and serving, we extend a special invitation to our Concert next Saturday evening from seven to nine o'clock. We want to get acquainted. You'll find that our highest ambition is service, coupled with honesty, low price and satisfaction of our customers. Then business and profit comes to us as natural as water flows down stream.

MUSICAL CONCERT. That's what we call the "stunt" we are going to pull off next Saturday evening. But music is not all, not by a long shot. We are going to open a "fresh" barrel of fun and see that every body gets in on it. You see, we are going to give away a lot of prizes, and every prize is something worth while, and if you are not here some one will get a prize that was for you. Then too, we have the size you wear, and want you to get it. Our advice is to be early, for our "Auditorium" has a very limited seating capacity, and you'd better reserve yours by sitting on it.

It may seem out of place in Pathe News to talk about heating stoves, but it's on our mind and we've got to get it off. We have been in business almost five years and have never been guilty of carrying over heaters from one season to the next, or of carrying over refrigerators from one summer to the other, and we don't want to be accused of doing it this time. So bring us your good will, and a promise to give us a little money some time, and get one for less than cost. If you don't need it and never expect it, it's a good buy any way. Hurry on now, for we have only six left.

Pathe News is only a few weeks old, yet it has as large circulation as the Albany-Decatur Daily. This fact has caused us to receive requests for advertising rates and we are submitting an "estimate" rate below. However, we will not bind ourselves to this rate, owing to the fact that we are booked several years ahead, and our city will have more than a hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants and our circulation will be more than a million before we could insert any copies accepted at this time. But with reservations, we will accept copies at following rates. Not more than two words or less than one, FIFTEEN BUCKS per word. No advertisement taken with more than two words. Copies must be in our office two years before going to press and paid in advance.

You will never know just what kind of "dummys" we are unless you come to our "blowout" next Saturday night. Then this will be chance to hear just how good our Starr pianos really sound. If you haven't got one you'll wish you had one, and we'll tell you just how easy it is to own one. And another thing. You may think we tell all we know in Pathe News, but you're mistaken. Badly mistaken. We have a lot of perfectly new "stuff" that has never been told and we're going to turn it loose at this concert. If you miss it, you've missed some "hot" doings.

Pathe News is a "clean cut" publication devoted to the upbuilding of our own business. If you like it, read it. If you don't like it, read it any way, or other folks will know more'n you. Come to our concert and if you like it, you are welcome. If you don't like it, you may leave, provided you can get through the crowd. We are not saying much about Pathe phonographs in this week's News. You see, so many people have Pathe's, there's nothing we can say that would have the effect their advertising carries. Almost every day we have some one come in and say a Pathe owner sent them here. Satisfied customers are the world's best advertisement and this is the way we are building our business, both in the Furniture and Musical lines.

Whatever You Do, Don't
Miss the Concert

Y. P. M. S. ENTERTAINS

The Young People's Missionary Society of the Central M. E. Church, entertained its friends with a George Washington party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lovin Monday evening. The home was artistically decorated using the appropriate decorations for the occasion. Music, readings, and games were enjoyed until a late hour, when light refreshments were served.

DANCE

An enjoyable dance was given last night by the young men of the twin cities, in the ball room of the Lyons Hotel. About twenty couple participated music being furnished by the Alabama Jazz band.

Mrs. Robert Sittason is in Sylacauga, Ala., attending the North Alabama Missionary conference, representing the Young People's Missionary Society of the Central M. E. Church, Albany.

SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Ruby Britnell was surprised by a few of her friends Tuesday evening. Music, cards, and other games were features of the evening.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Misses Brownie Warden, Mildred Wilder, Amy Lee Speake, Hilda Harris, Velma Trantan, and Ruby Britnell; Messrs. Spurgeon Speer, Wilbur Couch, Charles Morris, Joe McKay, Ormond Frazier and Irvin Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. DeJarnette, of Cynthia, Ky., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Mullen.

Mrs. W. H. Winton and Mrs. Robert Sittason are attending the Woman's Missionary Conference at Sylacauga.

MRS. H. M. BURT ENTER TAINS AUCTION BOOK CLUB
On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. M.

Burt was a most charming hostess, when she entertained the Auction Book Club at one o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Burt selected yellow spring blossoms to supplement the national colors suggestive of the birth anniversary of the Father of our Country.

Immediately after the arrival of her guests the hostess invited them into the dining room where a prettily appointed table centered by a silver tulle tied basket of jonquils awaited them. Further table decorations were effected in tulle tied crystal vases of this same blossom. An elaborately prepared menu which had been given most careful consideration in the minutest detail was served in three courses, following the luncheon the hostess, with her guests, respaired to the parlors where crystal vases interspersed with silver baskets of jonquils made an effective setting for the table arranged for the Auction game.

Mrs. Herbert Odom was the successful contestant among the club guests, she was awarded a lovely mayonnaise bowl, while the club prize, "This Side of Paradise," by F. S. Fitzgerald fell to Mrs. T. A. Caddell. The consolation, a hand made card table cover, was cut by Mrs. R. H. Wolcott. Club guests were Mesdames J. Chafin, P. J. Johnson, J. L. Robinson, Herbert Odom, Edwin McGregor and Miss Elizabeth Johnson.

SILVER TEA

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Talley was shown open yesterday to members and friends of the Junior Missionary society of the First Christian church, when this society entertained at a Silver tea. An effective decoration in American flags, hatchets, and other symbols, emblematic of Washington's birthday was used throughout the reception suite of the Talley home. Little Misses Leitha Brown and Ruth Gentry received the silver offering in silver baskets tied with huge bows of red ribbon. Mrs. S. M. Thompson welcomed the guests and invited them into the dining room where Misses Katherine Smith and Christine Worley poured tea from a beautifully appointed table. The table, which was covered with a cluny and centered by a blooming cyclamen, held tiny cut glass dishes of wafers, mints and salted nuts.

Under the direction of Mrs. W. O. Talley an interesting program was given. The first number, a playlette entitled, "Aunt Elizabeth's Missionary Tea," was well acted by Mildred Bell, Mildred Wood and Violet Winton. Other numbers on the program were a piano selection by Pauline Royer; a violin solo by Longene Clem; vocal solo by Miss Carolyn Cartwright; reading by Sarah Aycock; violin and piano duet by Gertrude Matheny and Irene Clem; piano selection by Lorraine Henderson; solo by Mrs. Otto Owens; and a reading by Dorothy Clark.

ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The Palladian Literary Society met in regular meeting, Feb. 16, a special program of Thomas Nelson Page was rendered in the following parts:

The Fame of Page—Lucy Roberts
Paige's Literary Career—Hazel Thompson
"In Old Virginia"—Mary Darnell
"Two Little Confederates"—Clarice Lee
Violin Solo—Earline Johnson.

MRS. HAL MULLEN CLUB HOSTESS

The Cotaco Literary club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Hal Mullen at her attractive home on Johnson street. The living and dining rooms were bright with spring flowers. Mrs. Ike Scheer, leader for the afternoon, handled her subject, Esquador, in a very capable manner. Mrs. Otto Moebes conducted a round table, using Washington as her topic. Each club member contributed some interesting item of this hero's life and character, making a pretty celebration of this anniversary of his birth. During the social hour Mrs. Mullen was assisted by Mrs. DeJarnette in serving a lovely salad.

Sheriff J. V. May is confined to his home on account of illness.

P. C. Jordan, prominent engineer of L. & N. Division, who has been visiting friends in Birmingham and Nashville.

Mayor E. C. Payne, though still confined to his home, is rapidly recovering from a serious illness.

Theodore Wallace, who underwent a serious operation at the Benevolent Hospital Tuesday, is improving.
